

ORAL HISTORY #321
Kazuo Mauranaka
Zero pilot IMS Akagi

Daniel Martinez (DM): This Oral History interview [was conducted by Daniel Martinez (DM) of the National Park Service/USS Arizona Memorial] on the Nippon Maru, on June 13,1986 with Kazuo Muranaka (KM) [who was a pilot in the Japanese Imperial Navy and flew from the IMS Akagi during the attack on Pearl Harbor. The interpreter is Mr. Ondo.]

(DM): What is your full name?

Kazuo Muranaka (KM): Kazuo Muranaka

(DM): What is your present residence?

(KM): Oita prefecture, Beppu City, near [the] hot springs beds in Kyushu.

(DM): What is your age?

(KM): 67 years old.

(DM): How old were when you first flew?

(KM): 22 years old.

(DM): Where were you born?

(KM): Fukuoka prefecture, Hosoi City, Kyushu.

(DM): What is your [birth date]?

(KM): February 27,1919.

(DM): Where did you grow up?

(KM): Where I was born, in Fukuoka.

(DM): When did you want be a pilot? When did you want to fly?

(KM): January 23,1938 was my first flight in an airplane. Started flying at Kasumigaura [Naval Aviator Training Center] Air Base.

(DM): When did you first want to fly? As a boy? As a child did he think about flying?

(KM): [At] 19 years old, after graduation from school

(DM): Where did you go to school?

(KM): He entered the navy at 16 years old after graduating from primary school [in Fukuoka]. Did not go to intermediate school (In Japan elementary [school] ends at 8th grade.

(DM): [What was the composition of your] family?

(KM): 6 girls, 5 boys.

(DM): Were [your] parents alive at the time of [the] attack?

(KM): [My] mother died 46 years ago and [my] father [died] 26 [years ago].

(DM): [What were your] parents names?

(KM): [My] father[s name was] Yoshinatsu, [and my] mother[s was] Mitsu.

(DM): What was training like in flight school?

(KM): Entered pilot training program at 16 in Kasumigaura [Naval Aviator Training Center] in 1935.

(DM): How long did training last?

(KM): First went into naval training, and then went to Oita after a year.

(DM): Did you fly in combat in China?

(KM): Yes.

(DM): Did [you] fly against Chinese pilots?

(KM): Yes.

(DM): Did [you] fly against American pilots in P-40's, the Flying Tigers in China?

(KN): [I] don't know..

(DM): How were you selected?

(KM): I was serious and I liked flying.

(DM): Were you a serious man?

(KM): Yes.

(DM): How did you feel fling your first combat?, Were you afraid?

(KM): I was not afraid.

(DM): When did you first go on a carrier?

(KM): September 1941, Hiryu was my first carrier.

(DM): Was Hiryu your carrier [on] December 7, 1941?

(KM): Yes.

(DM): Were you in the 1st or 2nd wave?

(KM): 1st wave.

(DM): What was your assignment?

(KM): (Much discussion on Pearl Harbor)

(DM): Were you afraid, any problems taking off?

(KM): No, not at all.

(DM): Have read [that] the seas were rough. How did you feel, were you afraid?

(KM): We trained very well and seas were not so rough [so] there was no problem. No, not afraid.

(DM): Did you know you were going to war?

(KM): Yes, of course, but couldn't be helped, we were ordered to go.

(DM): [With the] other pilots, did you talk about this?

(KM): Yes, but we all felt things would fall into place and work out once we were in the air.

(DM): Who was your friend?

(KM): I had many friends.

(DM): What was your target?

(KM): I was a fighter pilot so my primary concern was to protect the attack force. And of course destroy AA fire.

(DM): Were there any planes in the air?

(KM): No planes engaged us so we went to Wheeler [Field] and then to Barbers Point.

(DM): Did you engage in combat with American planes?

(KM): Not in my group.

(DM): Who was your commander?

(KM): Lieutenant Okajima.

(DM): Anybody lost in your squadron?

(KM): Not in my group but [Airman 1st Class Shigenori] Nishikaichi did not come back.

(DM): What happened to him?

(KM): He went down [and crash landed on the island of Niihau] and was captured by “natives” .

(DM): Did he crash?

(KM): By accident I think.

(DM): What happened to him?

(KM): He was about to be captured as a POW and later was killed along with another Japanese [who was an Island resident] on the island [of Niihau] by the natives of Niihau.

(DM): How long were you over Pearl Harbor? (Or in the air?)

(KM): About 45 minutes.

(DM): What time did [you leave] to fly back?

(KM): I don't remember.

(DM): What did you think of your plane?

(KM): Very good for a fighter plane at that time, very fast, flew 250 miles per hour.

(DM): [Were there] any close calls over Pearl Harbor?

(KM): Nothing over Pearl Harbor, but discovered he had 8 shell holes, one near his seat after flying over Barbers Point.

(DM): Did you see what was happening at Pearl Harbor?

(KM): Yes, and later was busy dodging fire from below. Yes, through the smoke, I caught occasional glimpses of Pearl Harbor.

(DM): Did you see the Arizona?

(KM): No.

(DM): What color was your plane, gray?

(KM): Do not remember clearly, I think it was striped.

(DM): Do you remember the number of your plane?

(KM): No.

(DM): Was it your plane for a long time?

(KM): No.

(DM): [What was the] color of your plane again?

(KM): Dark green almost black green.

(DM): When you flew back to your carrier, how did you feel?

(KM): I felt we had completed our mission, but we had to maintain our planes and reload our guns. We were told that the Lexington and the Enterprise were near by and there was a possibility of an attack to the task force, so we had to be ready on the flight deck.

(DM): Did you want to go back to Pearl harbor?

(KM): No ... Our concern at that time was the whereabouts of the Enterprise and Lexington.

(DM): [What are] your feelings about Pearl harbor?

(KM): [I] did not go to the [USS Arizona] Memorial because it was painful to see the remains of [the Arizona] and the result of our attack. Mr. Nakamamura.

(DM): I was asking about your feelings?

(KM): I believe relaying my feelings about Pearl Harbor. More than 40 years have passed and it's very difficult.

(DM): What would you like to tell Americans. Americans want to know how you feel.

(KM): We have good relations with the US and.... (could not understand beyond that.)

(DM): Did you fly at Wake [Island]?

(KM): Yes.

(DM): How long did he fly during the war, and not be wounded?

(KM): Lucky?

(DM): Did you fly till the end of the war, from 1941 to?

(KM): I flew about 1900 hours.

(DM): Was he shot down?

(KM): At Midway he was shot down at sea by AA [Anti Aircraft] fire.

(DM): How did he survive?

(KM): He was picked up by a Japanese destroyer.

(DM): How did he avoid being killed?

(KM): (Much discussion over meaning of "avoid", but no answer.)

(DM): Has his story been published in a book?

(KM): Yes. His story about the Battle of midway was published in a military magazine.

